THE ANSWER.

They were speaking of marriage proposals the other evening, when this story was recalled by Senator Benjamin R. Tillman of South Carolina:

"Sometime ago a young man became very much enamored of a beautiful girl, and meeting her at a reception one night, he determined to know his fate.

"Miss Smith," said he leading the beautiful girl amidst the glad palms and seating her on a sofa, "there is something that I must tell you, something that I—"

"All right, Mr. Jones," interposed the pretty one, "only you must hurry. I don't want to miss the next waltz."

"It is a question that lies near to my heart, Miss Smith," continued the young lover. "Could you—do you think you could marry a man like me?"

"Why, yes," was the calm rejoinder of Miss Smith, "that is, if he wasn't too much like you."—Ex.

His Age is Against Him.

"I am 65 years old and I have been troubled with kidneys and bladder for many years," writes Arthur Jones, Allen, Kas. "My age is against me to ever get cured, but Foley pills do more good than anything I ever tried." Rheumatism, aching back, shooting pains, stiff joints, irregular action, all have been relieved.

OF COURSE.

The inspector was examining a school and all the class had been specially told before hand by its teacher. "Don't answer unless you are almost certain your answer is correct."

The subject was history. "Who," asked the inspector, was the mother of the greatest Scottish hero and king, Robert Bruce?"

He pointed to the boy in front of him and then round the class. There was no answer. Then, at last, the heart of the teacher leaped with joy. The boy who was standing at the foot indicated that he knew.

"Well, my boy," continued the inspector, "who was she?"

"Mrs. Bruce," said the lad.—Chicago Journal.

HAD POOR CHANCE.

A new minister in a rural district who wished to make the acquaintance of the members of his congregation and also to discover whether they were pleased with his discourse, met an old farmer whose face he recognized as one who had attended the church the previous Sunday, and, stopping him, said: "Mr. Brown, how did you like my sermon last Sunday?"

"Well, parson," replied the old man, "you see, I didn't have a fair chance to judge. Right in front of me was old Mrs. Smith and the rest of that gang with their mouths wide open just a swallerin' down all the best of your sermon; 'n' what reached me, parson, was purty poor stuff, purty poor stuff."—Ex.

Why Constipation Injures.

The bowels are the natural sewage system of the body. When they become obstructed by constipation a part of the poisonous matter which they should carry off is absorbed into the system, making you feel dull and stupid, and interfering with the digestion and assimilation of food. This condition is quickly relieved by Chamberlain's tablet. Obtainable everywhere.

GRATTON NEWS.

Gratton, Va., April 12.—Farmers are more than pleased to see this fine weather. They are somewhat behind with their work.

We are much pleased to know Mrs. Will Bourne is able to be out again after a severe illness.

We were glad to see so many people out to hear the good sermon on Sunday.

J. R. and G. H. Crabtree, of Thompson Valley, bought a fine lot of ewes and lambs of Jno. McGraw last week. We are glad to see these good boys coming in our settlement.

Mr. Edd, Buchanan and others attended the quarterly meeting in Thompson Valley last Sunday. He says those valley people sure live well.

We are glad to see so much interest taken in the Sunday Schools of this place. We hope in another year we will have still better roads, so that the people won't have bad roads as an excuse for not attending church.

Safe Medicine for Children.

"Is it safe?" is the first question to be considered when buying cough medicine for children. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has long been a favorite with mothers of young children, as it contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as an adult. It is pleasant to take, too, which is of great importance when a medicine must be given to young children. This remedy is most effectual in relieving the coughs, colds and croup. Obtainable everywhere.

Protect School Children.

Measles, scarlet fever and whooping cough are prevalent among the school children in many cities. A common cold never should be neglected as it weakens the system so that it is not in condition to throw off more serious diseases. Foley's Honey and Tar is pleasant to take, acts quickly, contains no opiates. For sale by the Hawkins' Pharmacy.

"THE SWEETEST NOTE OF ALL."

"To the minds of the many, a meadow lark is a meadow lark, and those who have been raised in Nebraska are likely to be familiar with but one of several subspecies—the so-called western meadow lark. This beautiful songster was discovered near the present site of Omaha 'way back in the forties by Audubon himself, who was then tramping all over the country on foot, making his wonderful paintings and observations of American wild bird life.

Audubon was charmed with the delicious carol of this creature of the meadows, and spoke of it many times in his writings. Most bird lovers and skilled ornithologists agree that he note of the western meadow lark is the sweetest and purest of all.

"Musicians have been able to record his songs upon paper and many amateurs are able to whistle a fair imitation. Authorities disagree on just what the western meadow lark says from his fence post or from behind his clump of grass. A Nebraska farmer, whose potato crop had been saved from the beetles by the larks, told Dr. Solon R. Towne, president of the Audubon society, that to him the western meadow lark says nothing but:

"Whoop! ha! Potato bug!"

"Another well known song of this delightful bird seems to be:

"My, what a lovely creature!"

"And still another:

"Singing about as usual!"

"There is a story of the streets that tells of a bemused party who heard some folks talking about the western meadow lark.

"Oh, yes!" interrupted the dizzy person, "That's the bird that says: Better go take the Keely cure."

"But no matter what he says, his song is a thing of beauty and a joy forever. These larks appeared in the outskirts of Omaha about two weeks ago and are rapidly increasing in numbers.

"If you take your Sunday stroll through the country side today you will doubtless hear the carol that startled Audubon so many years ago, for the songs of the California and eastern meadow larks can not compare in tone and sweetness with those of the western variety that belong to us of the plains and to us alone." —Omaha World-Herald.

OBVIOUSLY NOT.

A Kansas farmer, returning home late at night, saw a light moving about in the farm yard. When he investigated he found a neighbor's farm hand carrying a lantern.

"What are you doing here?" demanded the farmer.

"Courtin', sir," replied the farm hand.

"Courtin', courtin', with a lantern? Huh, you fool, I never used a lantern when I went courtin'."

"Uo, sir," replied the farm hand as he moved off, "we can all see you didn't."—Ex.

SMILES SINCE THE ELECTION.

Benbow, April 12.—Since the election most of our good farmers have been going around wearing long smiles, and think if everything goes as we hope we will not always be pulling out of deep mud holes.

Mrs. J. O. Correll has recently been on the sick list, but is much better at this writing.

Rising Costs confront everybody!

This is an era of ascending costs, a period of price advancement without parallel. No statistical chart is needed to prove this—the effect of higher prices is felt by everyone, and is of real concern to all. It is a time for thoroughly weighing values, a time for taking advantage of every opportunity that offers a genuine saving.

Certain-teed Roofing

lowers the cost of building

CERTAIN-TEED offers a substantial saving in roof construction, at this or any other time. It costs less to buy, less to lay, less to maintain and less per year of life. Because of tremendous production (the General makes one third of all the roll roofing made in America), and because of economies effected by enormous resources, modern machinery and favorably located mills, the General is able to make the best roofing at the lowest cost.

CERTAIN-TEED Roofing is the General's own product—from the raw materials to the finished rolls, it is made in the General's huge mills. It is made of the best quality roofing felt, thoroughly saturated with the General's own blend of soft asphalt and coated with an impervious covering of harder asphalt. This keeps the inner saturation soft, and prevents the drying out process so destructive to ordinary roofing. That's why CERTAIN-TEED outlasts other roofing. It is guaranteed for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to ply. Experience proves that it lasts longer.

CERTAIN-TEED is sold by responsible dealers everywhere at reasonable prices. Investigate it before you decide on any type of roof.

You're lucky if you have a lot of old rags around the place, because they'll bring you big money now—eight times as much as you used to get for them. Last year rags sold around 4c a pound—now they are bringing 4c a pound, and manufacturers are glad to get them at that price. Rags form the basis of many well known products, such as writing paper, roofing etc. The roofing mills
